THE MAN.

Hon. Owen Tyler and What His Election Means For Louisville.

The People Aroused and Democratic Ticket Will Sweep the City.

Republicans See Defeat and Are Resorting to Disreputable Tactics.

EXPRESSIONS OF COMMON PEOPLE

"The Tyler name will be perpetuated in Louisville. And why not? Levi Tyler left behind blocks of real estate as his monument. Henry S. Tyler left a record of two terms as Mayor without a flaw. Owen Tyler, banker, manager of a vast heritage and authority in municipal affairs, is adding to the fame of the name of Tyler. When he retires from the office of Mayor Louisville will be broader in spirit, better in government, the pride of Kentucky and the Queen City of the Southland."

Before the next issue of the Kentucky Irish American reaches its readers the result of Tuesday's election will be known. Today the friends of the Democratic ticket feel assured of victory, but they should see to it that every vote is got out to swell the majority and stamp Louisville a Democratic city. Into this campaign the Republicans have dragged all manner of abuse and vilification, even entering the churches to create religious hatred and dissension. They have also attempted to disrupt organized labor, which they refuse to recognize at their convention. Failing in these and the effort to cause race prejudice, the Republican leaders have become desperate and are ready to resort to any tactics that might add to their vote. But the people of Louisville are "on to" them, and will see that the best municipal ticket ever presented receives a tremendous majority.

Only lack of space prevents reference to each candidate, but our readers are urged to scan the list that appears on another page, which represents the best that is in Louisville. Of course most has been said of Hon. Owen Tyler, who heads the ticket for Mayor, but every word uttered in his behalf applies with equal force to the others on the ticket with him. The names of Marion Rippey, Louis Stein, Thomas Shelley, John R. M'Farran, Lyne Herndon, Dan H. Russell, John M. Mulloy, Nathan Uri, James Reedy, Dr. Charles Moir, Robert J. Hagan, Walter Ratcliffe, Charles D. Greer, Mike Tynan, John M. Adams, William J. O'Connor, William A. Perry, Harry W. Robinson, P. T. Sullivan, William J. O'Leary, Thomas Moran, William J. Preuss, Joseph Hubbuch, Sr., Dan J. Dougherty, Ben J. Sand, W. H. Newman, John J. O'Brien, Thomas J. Morrow, C. J. Ford and the others give every assurance of a business administration that will make for Louisville's greater growth and prosperity. For Park Commissioners and School Trustees the Democratic candidates are men of the highest business and educational standing, in whose control our interests will be safe.

During the past week the Republicans, realizing that their cause is hopeless, have resorted to the cry of fraud and the importation of repeaters. For this they have no ground whatever, and a careful survey of the places where they gather shows that this time the tough element is with them. This will be apparent to any one who will look over their gatherings on the street corners and in a number of places where the lawless element are wont to congregate.

Thursday the representative of the Kentucky Irish American in a short trip met many of our best citizens, all for Tyler and the ticket, a few of whom expressed themselves as follows:

"When one thinks of Owen Tyler there is no suggestion of hypocrisy. His career has been one of success, and it is one that some of his detractors may well envy."

"Owen Tyler believes in a 'Greater Louisville.' Some of the alleged leaders who are seeking to encourage his defeat ought to organize themselves into a club for 'Lesser Louisville.'"

"Immorals and forgers in general to the rear. Owen Tyler's election means the defeat of deception and the triumph of truth. Frankness, sincerity and home rule are the slogans of his campaign."

"Owen Tyler will deny no man the privilege which belongs to him. Personal liberty is a privilege and an issue in this contest."

"The position of the lowly workman is a matter of no concern to the political foes of Owen Tyler. Party success and then sneers for the men not in the blue-blood class will be thanks men will receive who fail to support Mr. Tyler."

"The same men who are today denouncing Owen Tyler are the same men who cried aloud to enervate William Goebel, the man who made gambling a felony and who drove the Frankfort lottery from Kentucky. Mr. Goebel was a reformer, but the kind of sincerity which actuated him is not the kind these hypocrites like."

"Rough hands and faces wearing the trade-mark of toil find no warm clasp or draw a smile of equality from the blue-blooded aristocracy which is landing Mr. Grinstead as the savior of this city." "In the language of Joe Huffaker: 'For the laboring men of Louisville to turn their backs on Mr. Tyler in this campaign would be as an army to desert its General on the field of battle.'"

"Did Mr. Grinstead or any other Republican in the past ever advocate the closing of the saloons on Sunday? We think not."

No city official of Louisville ever made a better record than Thomas Shelley, the present efficient and faithful City Tax Receiver. Holding the office but quite two years, he has handled just $3,581,922.60 of the city's money, and after an examination of his books that lasted three weeks and was most thorough he was on Thursday given his quietus. The examination was conducted by Expert Charles Meriwether, who was unable to discover even a trivial clerical error and so reported to Mayor Bingham. In his report to the Mayor the examiner said that Mr. Shelley was the most efficient Tax Receiver the city ever had, that the most critical examination had been made and not a single error had been discovered. He also spoke in the highest terms of the manner in which the books were kept, and returned thanks to Mr. Shelley and his deputies for their many courtesies while he was in their office.

Mr. Shelley is a candidate for reelection to his present position, and a better recommendation than the foregoing could not be asked. He is an honest man and all honest men should vote for him.

COUNTY BOARD.

Takes Initial Step For Celebration of St. Patrick's Day.

The County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians met Tuesday night in the hall of Division 4 on Walnut street, and the session was the most important and interesting held for some months past. President Murphy occupied the chair and delegates from all the divisions were present. The Finance Committee submitted the final report of the receipts and disbursements of the last year, showing a handsome surplus. Many tickets are yet in the hands of members, for which returns should be at once made to the division or Secretary Connelly.

Divisions 1, 3 and 4 offered their quarterly reports, each having made gains in both finances and membership. Division 2 made the best financial showing, but Division 4 was awarded the honor for membership. Communications from State Secretary Hunt and National Secretary Carroll were read and their requests referred to the divisions.

A movement for the celebration of St. Patrick's day was inaugurated by the appointment of Messrs. Thomas D. O'Brien, Con. J. Ford, D. J. Coleman and Will J. Connelly as a special committee to consider the various suggestions made and report at the next meeting. The matter of organizing a marching club to attend the national convention at Indianapolis next July was freely discussed, resulting in each division being authorized to form its own club. When these are organized a committee will be appointed to procure a uniform costume for the marchers.

Delegates from Division 3 requested that the County Board take some action in regard to the study of Irish history in the parochial schools, especially in those where the majority of the pupils are of Irish parentage. After an interesting discussion the board adjourned to meet in November.

FORTY HOURS.

The beautiful Forty Hours' devotion will be held next in this city at St. William's church, Thirteenth and Oak. They will begin at the high mass tomorrow morning, at which there will be an eloquent sermon, and conclude Tuesday, Father Denis Murphy will welcome all who wish to attend these services.

CHANGE FOR BETTER.

Frank Dugan, the genial Inspector of Weights and Measures, was stricken with pneumonia and for three weeks has been confined to his home on Sixth street in a serious condition. Thursday he underwent a favorable change, which gives hope for his speedy and entire recovery.

MONTH'S MIND.

The solemn ceremony of the Month's Mind for the late Father Francis Brady will take place Tuesday morning at St. Cecilia's church, and all the clergy who can are invited to be present. The office for the dead will begin at 8:30 o'clock, and will be followed by the solemn high mass half an hour later. Besides the clergy there will doubtless be a large gathering of friends of the worthy young priest whose death they all mourn.

BEAUTIFUL LIFE ENDED.

The remains of Mrs. Della Purtillo Allen were laid to rest in St. Louis cemetery on last Saturday morning. She died after an illness of only two weeks duration and her funeral took place from the Church of the Blessed Sacrament. Rev. Father Sullivan sang a requiem high mass and preached an eloquent funeral sermon. In his instructions he paid a merited tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Allen, whose strong faith was a shining example to many. She was born in County Kerry, Ireland, and visited her old home and the scenes of her childhood last May, returning October 5. She contracted a heavy cold while there and was so fatigued and worn out after her long journey that she died. Asleep, reminding us of a tired, sleepy baby, she passed away as calmly as the last glimmer of a consumed taper. Mrs. Allen is survived by two brothers, John Purtillo, of Pine Grove, Va., and Edward Purtillo, of Ballydonaghue, Ireland. All loved her in life and will not forget her in death. May she now enjoy the rewards of her pious life; may she rest in peace.

HOLY DAYS.

Yesterday was All Saints day, a holy day of obligation, and in all the churches in the city there was a large attendance at the masses and vespers. Today is All Souls' day, the day when prayers and masses are offered for the repose of the souls of the dead. The general observance, however, will not take place until tomorrow, when thousands will visit the Catholic cemeteries, and at some impressive services will be held.

PIRIEST CAPTURES THIEF.

A sneak thief pried open the poor box in the Church of St. Aloysius, at One Hundred and Thirty-second street and Seventh avenue, New York City, last Saturday afternoon, when Fathers McKenna and Larkin were hearing confessions. A boy sent word to Father Larkin, who, broad-shouldered and powerful, did not call the police but went to work himself. The priest caught the man, who put up a brief fight and then gave in. He was given in charge of the police, charged with petty larceny.

CONDITION IMPROVING.

Gratifying improvement has been reported in the condition of Robert L. O'Bryan, the well known whisky merchant, who was dangerously hurt at his store three weeks ago. Mr. O'Bryan was standing on a shelf reaching for a bottle when he lost his balance and fell backward to the floor, fracturing his skull at the base of the brain. He was taken to St. Joseph's Infirmary, where an operation was performed, and for a time his life was despaired of. The concussion has not entirely disappeared and the patient often lapses into a semi-conscious condition. However, he has shown marked improvement in the past week and has completely regained his sight and hearing, which for days appeared destroyed. His physician now has strong hopes for his recovery.

HARRY W. ROBINSON

In the State Senate Will Be of Splendid Service to Louisville.

Most people in Louisville will recognize Harry Robinson in the picture above, as few men are more popular or better known, and as nominee of the Democratic party for the Senate, from the Thirty-seventh district, comprising the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh wards, from Shelby to Fifth streets and the river to the city limits, a wise choice could scarcely have been made. His education and ability and the fact that he has been a member of the Louisville bar for a number of years make him especially adapted for the work ahead of him. His friends are numbered in all walks of life, and his popularity with all classes seems to make his election assured. He has given his time and energy toward the advancement of Louisville and is ever ready to assist in making our city the greatest in the South, and while he has a large law practice it is a well known fact that no poor man who needs protection in a legal way ever leaves his office because he can not pay a fee in advance. Mr. Robinson was born and reared in Louisville and comes from an old and respected family, and his standing here is of the very highest. He has always been most friendly toward the working classes, and they will find in him all that goes to make the true, honest man, in proceeding or voting any bill in which they are interested, and a vote cast for him means one step toward sending to the Senate a man who could not stoop to dishonor and whose ideals are of the highest type.

ANNUAL MASS

For Mackin's Deceased Members on Sunday, November 17.

Mackin Council at the meeting held Tuesday night decided to have the annual mass for the repose of the souls of deceased members celebrated on Sunday, November 17. After electing six new members and receiving another application the request of the contending teams was granted and the initiation postponed to November 24, when the degrees of the Young Men's Institute will be conferred upon a class of between thirty and forty candidates. President Sand announced a lecture for Thursday night, November 21, to which the public will be invited, by a prominent physician of the Anti-Tuberculosis Association. This lecture will deal with the work of the society as well as how people should conduct their homes to escape the dread life destroyer. A communication was received from St. Joseph, Mo., announcing the serious illness of John Kemper, one of Mackin's pioneer members, who left Louisville several years ago to accept a good position in that city. Chairman Ruddy read an additional list of donations for the charity euchre, and said its success was assured.

INSTITUTE TOMORROW.

Tomorrow the Knights of Columbus will institute a splendid council of that order at Lebanon, for which event the Catholics of that place have been making preparation for several weeks. A special train will leave the Tenth-street station in the morning and will carry about a hundred Knights. Upon arriving at Lebanon the Knights and candidates will attend mass at St. Augustine's church. After dinner the new body will be instituted and the degrees conferred by teams selected from Louisville Council. The whole will conclude with a banquet, at which some of the most prominent Catholics in the State will deliver addresses.

FATHER TYRELL AGAIN.

In Rome it is asserted that the Pope intends soon to issue an announcement of the ecclesiastical punishment inflicted upon the Rev. Father Tyrell, the noted English Jesuit, whose books on religious subjects have been condemned by the Holy Office. It is not known what the form of punishment will be, but it is stated that it will not be excommunication.

BEFORE PEOPLE.

Campaign Has Closed and Democratic Leaders are Confident of Result.

Duty is to Vote Under Rooster and Not Be Influenced by Animosity.

Only Question Is Shall the Present Good Government Continue.

CAMPAIGN WAS ON HIGH PLANKS

The campaign for State offices conducted by the political parties is about at an end. Within a few days the will of the people of Kentucky will have been recorded at the polls under regulations of the election statutes. Nothing that might be written at this time will likely have the effect of changing a vote for or against either ticket. The voters have listened patiently to argument and have been campaigned with through the publication of official and court records placed in their hands and through personal letters from candidates and their advocates and friends. What has been accomplished through these methods can only be positively known after the balloting has ceased and the votes have been counted. It only remains to the loyal Kentuckian and good citizen to vote, and urge his neighbor to cast his vote, for the upbuilding and for the safe government of his Commonwealth, and to not permit passion and prejudice to mar his vision when he goes into the election booth to exercise his right of suffrage.

On the eve of election it will be well for the voter to commune with himself. If he believes in the principles enunciated by one of the great parties his vote should be cast in support of that party. Not cast in part for his party by scratching one or another of its nominees from his support, but cast by stamping with his stencil beneath the emblem of the party of his preference. This is a day of measures and policies, not mere individuals, and every true Kentuckian owes it to himself and to his State to cast his vote for its betterment, not because he approves or disapproves of the candidacy of some one or two men whose names are beneath the emblem of the great Democratic leader in national affairs, probably the man closest to the great masses of the people of the United States, dealt with this matter when in Kentucky some weeks ago. He took the position that a man who has the good of his State and country at heart can not afford to refuse to support the political party in whose principles he believes because of any one plank of its platform or because of any individual who is a candidate upon its ticket; that the party is far greater than the man, and that because a man can not get all that he wants in measures and in policies he can not afford to reject the party as a whole or in part.

In deciding which party, the Democratic or the Republican, he will support in the election to select to the offices of his State government the intelligent voter will consider the matter much as he would an affair of his own business or of his immediate household. He wants to put into the Governor's chair and into the management of the fiscal affairs of the Commonwealth the same class of men he would engage to manage his business should he need assistance. He wants to put there men who will manage the big affairs of State to the best interest of its great citizenship, not men who there is in them or to be gotten out of them. The people of Kentucky are as well acquainted with financial conditions in the State and the use to which their money has been put as are the candidates and orators who have been speaking to them for six weeks past. Before they will accept a statement it must be fact by the public records of the State. They are slow to believe what a man who has been in office is a just because a political man makes that unsupported charge. Some stump, personal abuse public officials will not bring voters to the one guilty of that abuse, for they know it is the course pursued usually by the man who has no charge that he can substantiate by public records and that he digests in abuse only to cover his own defects and to drag down his opponent to his own level.

The campaign conducted by Hager, the candidate of the Democracy for the Governorship, by his associate candidates, the orators of that party, has been the highest plane upon which a political campaign could be conducted. Every utterance of Hager has been backed by the record of the State. They have engaged in abuse of their opponents, but that that was not the way to successfully campaign before a prudent people. They have fingered the affairs of government eight years past, hiding nothing they had nothing to fear from the fullest publicity of every act of Democratic officials. They compared Democratic administration of public affairs with the four years of Bradley and Taylor, the reign which brought military bloodshed and disgrace to the Next Tuesday the voters of Louisville will be called upon for the performance of an important duty, upon the result of which largely depends the immediate progress of our fair city. That day the people must select officers who will govern them for the next two years, and upon them rests the responsibility for a wise choice. Louisville is now happy and prosperous and it should be the aim of every man to have her thus continue. This will most certainly result if the voters cast their ballots and elect Owen Tyler and the splendid ticket headed by him.

YOUR DUTY.

Before going to the polls we would again ask every man to make a comparison of the names upon the Democratic and Republican city tickets. With Mr. Tyler are professional men, business men, working men, known throughout the city for their ability and integrity, and with an experience that insures Louisville the best municipal government in her whole history. Upon the other hand the Republican ticket is made up of unknown and inexperienced men, some of whom are utterly unfit and unworthy a place in any government. This they have shown during the past week by their wild charges and threats.

To the good citizen we would say go to the polls and cast your ballot for the Democratic candidates. They have one and all conducted a clean and honorable campaign, and their election will be on the same lines. Give them your support and a majority of at least 5,000.

READING.

A writer in St. Mary's Sentinel says no one can imagine what great advantages are derived from such a simple diversion as reading. It not only furnishes us with thoughts to lighten our toil, whether it be in the fields, at the desk, or amidst the noise and din of machinery, but inspires in us that one great gift which all should possess—ambition. Furthermore it acts as a stimulus for the mind by dispelling that tired, listless and wearisome condition of an unoccupied mind. These are some of the minor benefits that are derived from this practice, but now we arrive at the most important one. It is an old maxim, "An idle mind is the devil's workshop," therefore we can see from these words how necessary it is that the mind should have some employment. A taste for reading will always lead us into the best possible company, for "a good book is the precious life-blood of a master spirit," and in these books we can find wise and brilliant thoughts to edify and occupy our minds and thus render temptation avoidable. Reading, besides giving occupation to the mind, forms for us a staunch friend, who will always be with us, and one whom no one can wrest from us, no matter what injury they can otherwise inflict. This friendship is not like the unstable and formal friendship which is so prevalent in the world today, for this is the wisest, best and truest one at all times.

GUIDE FOR THE YOUNG.

Catholic parents should see to it that their children attend Sunday-school regularly, especially those children attending the public schools. The Sunday-school is really a greater blessing to guide the young than some believe. Of course, not a child can be accomplished by a Sunday-school teacher in the space of a few hours or minutes each Sunday, but even this amount of time will do much good to protect the children during the week from the many temptations that meet them on all sides. And here it might be well to advise parents to spend a frequent hour with their children at the Sunday school. How many there are who have forgotten the lessons which were imparted to them in childhood and are unable to impart information to their children. Besides the example set great benefit results therefrom.

Think for a minute that the aristocrats who are working so hard to defeat Owen Tyler and the plain, everyday citizens who represent the honest and honesty of any community? Not much. The contempt this class entertained by certain club leaders transforms itself into hatred for those who oppose their views and their selfish desires. The power to say what you

The great common people better hustle forward and shake hands with those Republican orators, the Bullitts, Basil Duke, Helm Bruce and Henry L. Stone, during these strenuous campaign days, as they will have a chance after the election, for the simple reason that the above mentioned common people are not eligible to enter the sacred precincts of the Pandemonium and other exclusive clubs.

As the merits of the candidates for the major and minor positions on the two tickets are canvassed the judgment favors the Democrats, who have presented a ticket that should receive an overwhelming majority next Tuesday.

Workingmen who would provide work for their fellows should vote for the men favored by those who are upbuilding this city. Some of them are found advocating the Republican candidates.

President Roosevelt last Saturday issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, naming the last Thursday in this month for that feast day.

Since the Rev. M. P. Hunt, of St. P. A. fame, assumed control of its affairs the Republican party has suffered a steady loss.

BEFORE PEOPLE.

Commonwealth, and in making the comparison, or rather contrast, it was necessary to tell the truth about some of the men who are now leading the Republican fight. The Republican answer to this showing was violent abuse from the mouths of Bradley, Willson, Bremer and others.

The Democratic campaign has been based altogether upon the record of the party in the management of the public affairs of the State. It believes that through its candidates the fiscal affairs can be the best administered. It believes that through continued Democratic management the splendid conditions of today can be bettered during the next four years. It believes that it can still further lighten the burdens of taxation upon the people, having paid off the bonded debt of the Commonwealth, and without going into debt erected a magnificent new capitol, it believes that its officials should be the first to occupy that splendid building as an evidence of the confidence of the people and as a mark of their appreciation of the conduct of public affairs during the past eight years. It believes, in short, that with the disastrous Republican record of 1896-1900 so fresh in their minds, the people of Kentucky will be slow to return the State to the rule of Bradley and Taylor and Willson and to the domination of such men as Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, the national character brought into the State this year by Bradley and Willson to appeal to the prejudices of the mountain people of the State in behalf of Caleb Powers, Jim Howard, W. S. Taylor, Charles Finley and others. It does not believe that the people will agree to return to such domination. It confidently rests its case with the people.

WANT BIG CLASS

Does Division 4, A. O. H., For Their Initiation This Month.

Division 4, A. O. H., met last Monday evening with President Joseph P. McGlin in the chair and steps were taken to have an extra large class for the initiation which will be held Monday, November 25, at Bertram Hall. In addition to about twenty applications now on file there are several prospective ones in the hands of John H. Hennessy and Thomas Lynch, who have constituted themselves into a steering committee for prospective members. Everyone present at the meeting was given an application blank and urged to solicit at least one member by the next meeting.

Charles Callahan was reported as recovered from his recent injury by the visiting committee, and Alonzo Mitchell still ill but improving. Vice President S. J. McElliot was present after a long absence and was given a hearty reception by the members. An interesting talk on the observances of the church was given by J. W. Smith, of Lockport, Ill., which was much enjoyed by his hearers.

RIVES CAPTURED PRIZE.

One of the most pleasant affairs ever given under the auspices of De Fraine Council, Y. M. I., was the progressive euchre held last week at Lebanon and largely attended by the best people of the town. The gentlemen's prize was awarded Judge H. W. Rives, whose adeptness with the cards was quite a surprise to some other players. Miss Mary Belle Ballard won the lady's prize, while the consolation honors went to Dan Thompson.

We are pleased to note that Mr. Martin Niles, who has been confined to his home, 221 West Broadway, suffering from a serious illness of tonsillitis, is improving, and it is thought he will be able to be out next week.

Mrs. P. J. Fitzgerald and daughter Josephine have returned from Clarksville, Tenn., where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Fitzgerald's sister, Mrs. Brock, whom they left convalescent and on the road to recovery.

Their many friends will be pleasantly surprised by the announcement of the engagement of John A. Hinchey and Miss Louise Herbold, the accomplished and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Herbold. The marriage ceremony will be solemnized November 14.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Mansfield and Henry E. Snow will be solemnized next Saturday at the Cathedral rectory. Miss Mansfield has been a popular and prominent figure in the society circles of the Highlands, and the groom-elect is well known and stands high in the railway world.

Last week Mrs. Maubee Cull, one of the best known women of Jeffersonville, was taken seriously ill and her friends were greatly alarmed over the report that she would have to be taken to St. Joseph's hospital to undergo an operation. Though still suffering greatly her condition is thought to have changed for the better.

Miss Susan Ryan's young friends gave her a jolly surprise party last Friday night at the home of her parents, West Madison street, in honor of her fifteenth birthday. The evening was devoted to a number of amusements followed by an elegant luncheon over which Miss Ryan presided with much grace. Among those present were the following: Misses Susan C. Ryan, Mary J. Keely, Sheridan McBridge, Marguerite Gathof, Jeanne E. Gnan, Clara Hars, Sallie Keenan, Louise Gathof, Helen Gathof and Marguerite Ryan; Messrs. Frank Higgins, John J. Ryan, Francis Gathof, Major Clifford, Edward Week and Joe Higgins.

Dr. Frederick Buehe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Buehe, of Vincennes and Main streets, New Albany, and Miss Cecilia Menger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Menger, of this city, were married Wednesday morning at St. Louis Bertrand's church in the presence of many friends and relatives. The attendants were Miss Mary Menger, cousin of the bride, and John Buehe, brother of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Buehe left for Richmond, Ind., where Dr. Buehe has been engaged in the practice of medicine for several years and has been very successful. They will go to housekeeping at once, a handsome home having been prepared for their occupancy.

Miss Katherine Niles, the bright and pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Niles, 221 West Broadway, was given a most complete and delightful surprise party by her schoolmates last Friday evening in celebration of her thirteenth birthday. Decorated with a profusion of fall flowers and Japanese trimmings and lanterns the parlors and dining room presented a pretty and animated scene. During the evening many interesting games were indulged in and prizes were awarded Miss Venita Johnson and Jerome Lager. A pleasing feature was the musical programme and the vocal and instrumental selections rendered by John Whallen, Florence Riley, Thomas Ryan, Adele Garr, Earl Flynn and Elsie and Katherine Niles. Mrs. Niles was the hostess and those present were Misses Flor-

CHAMPION SHERIDAN

Suffers Injuries That Compel His Retirement From Athletics.

Martin J. Sheridan, World's and Olympic champion, the greatest and most famous athlete in the world, will probably never be seen in an athletic contest again. While training for the indoor national championship, at Madison Square Garden, in New York, Sheridan strained the muscles of his stomach. Tuesday this great Irish athlete of modern days was obliged to consult a physician. A few minutes' examination showed the doctor that Sheridan had gone too far and he told him at once that it would be many months before he could safely risk the terrible strain of tossing weights and engaging in other such strenuous pastimes as hurling, vaulting and jumping.

The loss of Sheridan will be a serious matter for the prestige of the American athletic world. Next summer the great Olympic games will be held in London, when the best amateur athletes in the world will meet to decide international supremacy. The American team has a splendid chance of repeating the great victory at Athens last year, but with Sheridan off the team the chances of the Americans will be considerably lessened.

Sheridan is easily the greatest all-round athlete this country or any other country has ever produced. He can toss weights, jump, hurdle and sprint with the most classy men in the world. In 1906 he won the all-round championship of America and broke the point record for this gruelling contest by 400 points.

NOVELTY EUCHRE

Trinity Council's Club House a Pleasant Surprise to Members.

Trinity Council, Y. M. I., held a well attended and interesting meeting Tuesday night, when the improvements just completed in the club house were much of a surprise to the members. The hall has been newly decorated and a new floor laid and now presents a most inviting appearance, giving Trinity as nice and comfortable quarters as any in the city. For the purpose of a general opening to the public and the inauguration of the winter social season the council will on next Thursday night give one of its popular novelty euchres, when many handsome prizes will be awarded. After the games there will be dancing and a large gathering is looked for. Trinity Council's dances and euchres have always been popular, but the committee expects to make this one surpass any yet given.

The Ways and Means Committee are continuing their work of preparation for the erection of the new club house and from reports are meeting with much encouragement. Early in the spring the contracts will be let, and it is expected that in the fall Trinity will occupy its own home. During the next few months a number of entertainments will be given, the proceeds of which will be added to the building fund. The committee includes Joseph Bell, Frank Wilson, A. J. Schneider, Clem A. Ellett, Jerome J. Driscoll, Tom Newman, Edward Kealty, Dr. B. J. Lamours, V. K. Eckert, Dr. P. G. Heutel, Jr., and George Kirchdorfer. They announce that social dances will be given November 13 and 27.

LENIHAN-MORRIS.

Limerick was given one of the most elaborate weddings of the season in the marriage of Miss Nellie Morrissy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Morrissy, 1429 Seventh street, and John J. Lenihan, connected with the Missouri Pacific railroad at Sedalia, Mo., which took place Tuesday morning at the Dominican church, a wedding breakfast and large reception following at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Father Logan, Prior of St. Louis Bertrand's, officiated at the wedding and was the celebrant of the nuptial mass. Joseph Lenihan, brother of the groom, served as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Jerry Kavanagh, Edward Morrissy and William Hattenham. The bride was attired in a dainty traveling costume and presented a handsome appearance. That evening the happy couple left for New Orleans and the South, and after their honeymoon they will reside at Sedalia. Both have lived here all their lives and are well known, and the best wishes of a legion of friends will follow them into their wedded life.

FATHER ROCK EXPECTED.

The Rev. Father P. M. J. Rock, who has been in Virginia, for his health, is expected to return to the city today. For some time Father Rock has been a sufferer from bronchial troubles, and it is said it will be some time before he can resume his pastoral duties. For the past fifteen years he has been at the head of St. Andrew's church in Jefferson county. Before that he was at Danville and Somerset.

CONFIRMATIONS.

Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey concluded his week's confirmation tour yesterday at St. Andrew's church in Jefferson county. Before that he was at Danville and Somerset.

RECEIVING DONATIONS.

Miss Cleo Charlton, daughter of Senator Albert H. Charlton, will assist Mrs. Minnie West in the linen booth at the bazaar to be given in January for the benefit of St.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 7 of Syracuse is making a noble effort to bring its membership up to 500.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Covington mourns the death of Mrs. Nellie Henzinger.

The Ladies' Auxiliary at Worcester, Mass., with 450 members, is the largest in the country.

Division 4 meets Monday night, when it is expected a number of applications will be received.

With six auxiliaries in the District of Columbia the ladies are determined to start another in Washington.

The division at Emmetsburg, Iowa, organized twenty years ago, has now the largest membership in its history.

The Ohio State Board has offered a handsome gold watch as a prize for the county showing the largest increase of membership.

The County Board will meet Tuesday night, and the importance of the business calls for the presence of every member.

General talks on the present status of affairs in Ireland are becoming frequent at division meetings throughout the country.

There is much activity in Norfolk, especially among the ladies of the auxiliary, now one of the most progressive divisions in Virginia.

President Ford says the meeting of Division 2 next Friday night will be an interesting one. He requests the members to come prepared for business.

The Baltimore Extension Committee has begun its fall campaign to increase the membership of the order, and already several new divisions are in process of formation.

Division 9 of Philadelphia recently presented Dr. Hugh McAuliff with an artistic loving cup, in recognition of his good work since becoming a member ten years ago.

The contest for Queen of the Hibernian festival that opens Monday night at St. Paul has been spirited, and the divisions and auxiliaries being interested in the success of some candidate.

A general meeting of members from the city and county was held at Minneapolis last Sunday to inaugurate a campaign of progress and extend the field of usefulness of the order.

The new $20,000 building of the division at East Yonkers, N. Y., will be completed and ready for occupancy before December. The structure is an imposing one and the hall one of the finest in the city.

About fifty members of the different divisions in Minneapolis have in view what may be termed a "Hibernian Get Together Club." The object will be to give lectures, socials and entertainments and in various ways to cultivate good fellowship within the order in the Twin Cities.

The Hibernian Rifles organized several months ago at Oakland, Cal., with sixty-seven charter members, has brought so many members into the order that it has been deemed advisable to form the second company right away. It is expected by March 17 to have a whole battalion on that side of the bay.

Preliminary arrangements are being made by Trenton members of the Ancient Order for a public meeting to be held there, at which the objects and accomplishments of the order will be explained. Speakers of national prominence will be invited to participate and it is the aim to have the session the most successful ever held in New Jersey.

Irishmen and their descendants will be impressed with the advantages to be gained from membership in the order and a resultant increased enrollment is anticipated. While no date for the meeting has been selected it is not thought probable that it will be held before the middle of November.

State President Dullard and County President Garigan together with Presidents of the Trenton divisions are making the arrangements for the event.

SIGNED FOR NEXT YEAR.

John J. McCloskey, for the past two years manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, is home to spend the winter. So pleased was the National League management with his work and the showing made by McCloskey's team that he was not allowed to leave the Mound City until he had signed a contract for next year. The Cardinals have been greatly strengthened and promise to be right at the top in the next pennant race.

MOURN HER DEATH.

Several daughters and many friends mourn the death of Mrs. Johanna Scannell, and old and respected resident of St. Francis of Rome parish, which occurred Monday at the family residence, 1247 Pope street, and was caused by the infirmities incident to her age. Rev. Father White conducted the funeral services Wednesday morning, the church being thronged with mourning relatives and friends.

KING OFFERS PRIZE.

King Carlos has been interested in Irish affairs by His Excellency The O'Neill of Lisibon, who has for years past been a generous friend of the Irish language and who is the King's secretary.

ABLE TO WALK.

Anthony Monahan, the Kentucky and Indiana railway switchman, who has been confined to his home in New Albany for the past five months, suffering from injuries sustained in a railroad wreck that at first it was thought might prove fatal, was able, with the use of crutches, to be out on the street this week.

Tomorrow a new council will be formally organized at Montclair, N. J.

The council at Lima, Ohio, will take out a life membership in the Catholic Extension Society, the fee for which is $1,000.

Archbishop Christie has proved his friendship for the order by the interest he takes in the work of the Oregon councils.

When the Knights of Portland, Ore., opened their new $10,000 club house and hall His Grace Archbishop Christie was the guest of honor.

St. Joseph's Council at Fulton, N. Y., celebrated Discovery day and its tenth anniversary with a banquet and musicale at which 200 invited guests were entertained. Within three years the members have wiped out a debt of $2,000.

Nearly all the clergy of the English speaking parishes of Milwaukee are members, with a goodly number of the German and Polish clergy. The next initiation will add the name of Father Leone, the Italian pastor, to the roster of Pere Marquette Council.

The Knights of Oswego, N. Y., made the opening of their new club house last week an occasion long to be remembered. They occupy three floors in the O'Connor block. Rev. William Dwyer, of Syracuse, was the orator and the number of guests ran into the hundreds.

One of the most brilliant affairs ever witnessed in Denver was the dance given by the Queen's Daughters. Houston Hall was thronged with fashionably dressed women and pretty girls, while countless lights and strains of music added to the scene when Miss Maud Ryan led the grand march.

Mackin Council charity euchre, October 31, at club house.

ELECTED GENERAL.

From Rome has come word that Father Rodriguez, who has been the General of the Augustinian Order the past three years, has been re-elected to the position. It is very possible that he will soon go to the United States, as the Pope has ordered all the Generals of the religious orders to make regular and periodical inspection of all their houses. The principal establishments of the Augustinian Order to America are the college at Villanova, Pa., and the parish church in Atlantic City, N. J.

AGONY WAS AWFUL.

After suffering awful agony for two days little Lawrence Stith, the two-year-old son of Leo Stith, 2204 Griffiths avenue, was relieved by death from earthly pain. The child fell into a tub of scalding water and was literally boiled, and from the first there was no hope for its recovery. His funeral took place Sunday afternoon, the interment being in St. Louis cemetery.

JOHN DILLON ACTS.

The report of meddlers to the effect that "Honest John" Dillon, over in Ireland, had joined the ranks of the Sinn Feiners has just had a striking answer. He has rejoined the Irish Parliamentary party and pledges himself to be active in its support.

PURIFIER.

Chloride of lime should be in every home. It is a wonderful purifier and will remove bad odors quickly. True, some may think the cure worse than the disease, but not a housekeeper who has come to know that cleanliness follows in the wake of its purifying smell.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

His Eminence Cardinal Logue has appointed the Rev. James Grimes, of Portland, to be a Canon of the Armagh Cathedral Chapter.

Judge Craig was presented with white gloves at the Castleblaney quarter sessions, being symbolical of the peaceful state of that division of the country.

Joseph Rutledge, a Dublin shoe-maker, has been returned to the Monaghan lunatic asylum, from which he had been discharged only one week before.

Much regret is felt at Carrickmacross on the departure for America of Justice James Phelan, Chairman of the Urban District Council, William Phelan and Peter McChiskey.

Patrick Flanagan, of Annyalla, has been sworn in as a Justice of the Peace for the County Monaghan.

Philip McGuirk was last week sworn in as Borough Magistrate for Ballybay town.

At the monthly court held at Newtownforbes a man named Pat McGarry was remanded to the next assizes for firing with intent to maim at his stepfather, Pat Higgins. McGarry denied any intent to injure Higgins, and said he only fired at a hawk.

Some cold veins have been discovered on the mountains between Castlehead and Knocknagoshel. Some years ago a coal bed on those districts was operated and a number of men employed, but operations were subsequently suspended and the mine abandoned.

The death has taken place at Corom, County Clare, of Matthew Monahan, who was largely engaged in the drapery business in that town. He ceased to be at one time connected with Messrs. Gamble & Co., Limerick, and some years ago paid a visit to South Africa for the benefit of his health.

A number of changes in the Royal Irish Constabulary have just been announced. Constables T. Lennon, of Cavan, and R. Gaffney, of Monaghan, are appointed to the cavalry troop at the depot, and Constable Lloyd transferred from Cavan to Armagh. Sixty-one recruits on appointment joined the auxiliary depot at Richmond on Friday.

A sad accident occurred near Sligo, when a well known contractor named Battle was killed on his way home as a result of a cart passing over him. The deceased was a great favorite in the county, where he executed several contracts in the building line. The sad event has caused a painful shock in the locality, and much sympathy is expressed with the relatives of the deceased.

Owen Traynor, conductor of the Killan band, who has been ill and confined to his bed, is progressing toward recovery. A few evenings back not less than 100 willing hands turned out and cut down and neatly secured his out-crop. About four acres scarcely lasted an hour's work. Traynor is looked upon with much respect, and the turn out to secure his crop on this occasion bore ample testimony to this fact.

On Sunday the Most Rev. Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Limerick, laid the foundation stone of the new parish church at Timoleague, County Cork. Service was first conducted in the old church, at which the Most Rev. Dr. Kelly preached an eloquent and impressive sermon. The Rev. Father Hill also addressed the congregation, after which a procession was formed and moved to the site of the new building, where the ceremony of laying the first stone took place.

Fire came near destroying the premises of Michael Fitzsimons, Church street, Cavan, and his little son narrowly escaped suffocation. Henry Stewart, a well known Dundalk tailor, met with a sad and sudden death at his residence, St. Patrick's terrace. It appears he had been seated at the fire with his little daughter. Rising to go to bed, when he reached the third step on the staircase he suddenly fell backward, and his head coming in contact with the hard flooring he became unconscious and died from his injuries.

COUNTY BOARD.

Will Arrange For Observance of St. Patrick's Day.

The Jefferson County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians has been called to meet at Odd Fellow's Hall, Sixth and Walnut, next Tuesday night. County President Murphy will then inaugurate plans for a proper public observance of St. Patrick's day, March 17 next, and it is certain that a number of committees will be appointed. From him our representative learned that it was the intention to celebrate the feast of Erin's patron saint on a more elaborate scale than for many years past.

The board will also have for consideration a number of communications from the national officers, some of which deal with the order in this city and State. President Murphy says the reports from other cities are very encouraging and that with united effort the Hibernians of Kentucky can easily double their number. Another subject that will be discussed will be the proposed visitation to Indianapolis when the National convention meets there next year, when it is hoped the four local divisions will turn out in the big parade at least 500 strong. All the delegates are urged to attend this meeting.

REICHERT ELECTED.

Catholic Knights Make Him Head of Uniform Rank.

Catholic Knights throughout the country, but especially those of Kentucky and Indiana, will be highly gratified to know that Col. Michael Reichert, of Louisville, has been elected Major General of the Uniform Rank by a unanimous vote, succeeding L. J. Kadeski, of St. Louis. The news was first received by the Kentucky Irish American, and when announced by William F. Meahan at the general meeting held Tuesday night at the hall of Branch 612 three cheers were given that awoke the surrounding neighborhood.

The position of Major General of the Uniform Rank is an extremely important one at this particular time, and the order will not be long in realizing the wisdom of its choice. Gen. Reichert has been one of the most zealous workers of the C. K. of A. ever had and his ability is recognized everywhere. Largely through his efforts Branch 6 of this city has become one of the strongest in the country, and to him is largely due the rapid growth and success of the two splendid Uniform Rank companies that Louisville now boasts. His past experience as President of the Central Committee, President of the Kentucky State Council and Supreme Delegate, as well as for several years Adjutant General of the military department, fit him admirably for his new duties and assure a progressive and satisfactory administration. It is with no small feeling of pride that we join the Knights in saluting Major Gen. Reichert.

CELEBRATED ANNIVERSARY.

The twelfth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Otte was happily celebrated Wednesday evening at their home, 2024 Baxter avenue. Mahoney, H. Kennedy, M. Routh, John Kennedy, Frank Otte, George Schroeder, George Katzenberger, Mesdames Kleinjohn, Whalen, Frey and Hoertel, Misses Rosa Otte, Frances Traut, Margaret Kennedy, Clara Appel, Miss Bluderman and Messrs. William Kennedy, Louis Koshler, Ben Otte, Edward Kennedy. Otte's band was present and treated the party to a surprise serenade and music.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services over the remains of Miss Katie Carey were held at the Catholic Church Monday morning. For some time she had been ill, but despite careful nursing and every care she died peacefully on Friday evening. Surviving her is her sister, Mrs. Fred Whitlick, 1121 Delaware street, with whom she resided.

The funeral of Mrs. June Cummings, who died from old age, took place last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Cummings was one of the oldest and best known residents of the city, having come to Louisville from Ireland sixty-five years ago, when a child of ten years. She was a devout Catholic and her death is a source of grief to a wide circle. She is survived by three sons, John, Thomas and William Cummings, and two daughters, Mrs. E. S. Reecever, 1927 West Main street, and Mrs. F. H. Speth, of Jeffersonville.

After long and patient suffering, borne with Christian fortitude, Miss Milla Dillon, one of the best known Catholic young women in the city, passed to eternal happiness Monday night at her home, 2612 Bank street. Miss Dillon was the daughter of Frank Dillon, inspector for the Louisville Railway Company, and had only recently returned from the West, where she went in the hope of being restored to health. She was a member of the Altar Society and one of the most active workers for the Church of Our Lady in Portland, which has sustained a distinct loss. The funeral was held Thursday morning with a solemn mass of requiem, when Rev. Father Conliff paid a tribute to Miss Dillon's memory that brought tears to the eyes of the many who heard him.

CONDITION UNCHANGED.

The many friends of Rev. Father McFeely, of St. Louis Bertrand's, who has been at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital for some time, will regret to learn that his condition still remains unchanged, though on Wednesday he seemed to be somewhat revived.

AGAIN ON FORCE.

Niek Carey, for many years a valiant and trusted member of the police force, but for some time past doing private duty, was on Thursday restored to his former position. Officer Carey was fearless in the discharge of his duty and has a fine record.

NICE GIFT.

Mackin Council Responds to Appeal For Philippine Missions.

Tuesday night there was a good gathering of members at the meeting of Mackin Council, who added to the reputation of that splendid body of Catholic young men by voting a handsome donation to assist the missionaries who are doing earnest work for the church in the Philippines. President Sand, who is a candidate for Councilman on the Democratic ticket, had been called upon to address a mass meeting and was unable to be present and John Kinney occupied the chair. Three new members were elected, the leaders of the two teams announcing that they would have a class of between thirty and forty candidates for the initiation next month. The will put the membership far beyond the 500 mark.

Chairman Charles Raddy stated that enough tickets had been sold to make the charity eucue to be given next week a social and financial success, but urged all to keep working, as this will be the only one given this year. The Social Club announced its dance for Monday night and invited all the members and their friends to attend.

JUBILEE BANQUET.

Catholic Knights Celebrate Anniversary Thursday Evening.

The members of Branch 262, C. K. of A., their ladies and a number of clergymen and invited guests gathered Thursday night in St. Peter's Hall, Seventeenth and Southgate streets, to attend the banquet held by the branch in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of its organization. President Anton Dietmeir and a committee received the guests and escorted them to the hall, which was tastefully decorated and illuminated for the occasion. The banquet was an elaborate one, and was delightfully served. Frank X. Wolpert, the genial Secretary of Branch 262 and a widely known member of the order, presided in a very happy manner, and toasts were responded to by Newton G. Rogers, State Secretary, Albert F. Mahoney, Major Gen. Michael Reichert, Dr. William L. Doherty, Urban Stengel, Edward Neuhans and others. The addresses were well received and the many good works of the branch were warmly applauded. Not until a late hour did the gathering disperse, when all joined in a Te Deum of praise for St. Peter's branch and its continued prosperity.

BRAVE CORPORAL.

Many comments are being heard by eye-witnesses of the desperate battle between the police and negro desperado Burdine on Wednesday and the special bravery shown by Corporal Edward McElhott, who engaged in a pistol duel with the negro standing in the open, while the Burdine was protected by the corner of a brick wall, and it was chiefly instrumental through this officer that the negro was caught and subdued after a fierce struggle. His friends all say that you can always count on Corporal "Ed" to show the Irish that is in him.

ILL BUT ONE DAY.

It was a painful surprise to the friends of Arthur West, the eighteen-year-old son of Henry West, 2721 Highland avenue, when they learned Saturday that he died after one day's illness from abscess of the brain, resulting from earache. His condition was not regarded serious until a few hours before death, when West complained of intense pain in his head. His funeral took place from St. Charles' church, Rev. Father Ratto officiating at the solemn obsequies.

THELMA SECOND.

The Thelma Club has issued invitations for the second of its series of select dances, which takes place next Thursday night at Nadorff's Hall, Eighteenth and Kentucky streets. This club has become quite popular and its affairs are attended by the best people in the southwestern part of the city. Messrs. Jake Nadorff, Will Goetz and Frank Nadorff will be the committee in charge.
